

Mrs. Kamillia Jefferies-Dunn

Mrs. Kamillia Jefferies- Dunn is an entrepreneur, influencer, motivator, developer, small business owner, wife and last but not least a mother of three boys. Mrs. Jefferies-Dunn grew up in Flint, Michigan, in a poverty-stricken neighborhood. From a young age, Kamillia had a passion to take care of others in her community and improve the overall well-being of those with mental health, at risk children, young adults, subsistence abuse, reentry and homelessness in her community. Her passion led her to the medical field, where Kamillia invested much of her educational career. Mrs. Kamillia Jefferies-Dunn is pursuing to eradicate homelessness through nutrition, education, housing and provide a worthy reentry program for the background challenge citizen of Hillsborough county and surrounding areas.

For Kamillia, it has never been about proving to others that she could do something great, but that by believing in yourself it would lead to something greater than yourself.

As a member of the Black community, Mrs. Jefferies-Dunn is an active activist, via her non-profit organization; Christ House International Inc., she hosts various events throughout the year which has allowed her to establish very personal connections with other members of the community. Christ House has successfully opened an operate an outreach program, contracted by the Agency for Person with Disability, Depart of Children and family, Veteran Affairs and Agency of Health Care Administration. The company day to day operation provide Health care, mental health service, reentry, homemaker and companionship, habilitation, day programs, food, clothing, hygiene supplies non-medical transportation, education and spiritual guidance catered to the homeless, adult with disabilities, seniors, convicted felons, veterans and all people in the Tampa Bay and surrounding areas. Mrs. Jefferies-Dunn, uses every opportunity available to uplift her community and encourage others to achieve their dreams.